

INTRODUCTION

A majority of North Rift Valley leaders have decried increased case of insecurity following the Government decision to conduct fresh recruitment for National Police Reservists. They have so far called a speedup in the process after more than 700 residents fled their homes and schools closed for fear of banditry attacks in the area.

Other than the above, there were notable concerns of murder and suicide cases reported in Nairobi and Rest of the Country. In Nairobi, two police officers were over the weekend found dead at their houses in two separate incidents.

Reports from Rest of the Counties show that two couples killed their spouses and later committed suicide in Vihiga and Kiambu Counties.
