

INTRODUCTION

The Kenyan Government is set to spend heavily on security following the recently released budget for the financial year 2019-2020.

This will help enhance security both within the Country and along its borders as per the Sh325 billion proposed budget on the various security agencies.

For instance, part of the Sh140 billion allocated to the Interior Ministry will facilitate the installation of CCTV cameras in Nairobi, Mombasa, Kisumu, Nakuru and Eldoret.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK NAIROBI

There was a notable drop of crime-related activities in major parts of Nairobi County following the activation of the Nyumba Kumi program and recruitment of youths to various projects. Despite these initiatives, below were the highlights noted in the previous week:

- Police are investigating an incident where thugs on Tuesday night raided a city hotel and made away with property of unknown value.
- Three people were on Tuesday burnt to death after a fire broke out at a lodging facility near Kenya Bus Station in Nairobi's CBD.
- Police and staff of a private security company are under investigation after Ksh. 2 million they were escorting went missing on Friday in Industrial Area, Nairobi.
- Three suspected thugs were over the weekend shot dead by police in a botched robbery in Buru-Buru, Nairobi.
- A guard was on Saturday evening shot and wounded during a robbery incident at a Clothes Shop located near Lonrho House in Nairobi's CBD.
- More than 300 families in Nairobi's Mukuru Kwa Njenga slum in Embakasi West spent the Sunday night in cold after a fire razed down their houses.
- A 26-year-old man was on Sunday drugged and accosted in Ngara by suspected thugs.
- Three traffic police officers were on Monday evening arrested for allegedly soliciting bribes from motorists along the Nyerere road in Nairobi.
- A man is on the run after he on Monday night attacked and seriously injured his wife at their home in Embakasi, Nairobi County.
