

INTRODUCTION

Police have beefed up security in parts of North Eastern and Coastal regions following intelligence reports of a possible Al Shabaab attack during and after Idd-ul-Fitr celebrations.

The report further indicates that the militia group is regrouping in Fino area of Mandera County and will channel their attacks on the security agencies in the region.

Other than the above, increased cases of banditry in the North Rift regions have prompted the Government to carry out operations to flush out criminals and masterminds behind the vice.
