

INTRODUCTION

The Country remains on high alert over a possible terror attack following the arrest of four suspects posing as customers at two high-end hotels within Nairobi and the suspension of public transport in Mandera County.

Other than the above, police in Mombasa over the weekend gunned down one of the most wanted criminals in the area after hunting him down for months. Statistics on criminal gangs in Mombasa shows that Wakili Kwanza, Wakali Wao, Wajukuu Wa Bibi, and Congo are the leading gangs among the 42 juvenile gangs that have been inflicting injuries to residents despite security officials improving the situation and promising to take more actions.
