

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

30th July - 5th August

OVERVIEW

The DusitD2 hotel this week resumed its normal operations after six months of closure that resulted from a militant attack. The hotel has so far intensified its security precautions through increasing the number of security checkpoints as a proactive mechanism of deterring future similar occurrence.

Other than the above, the resurgence of local criminal gangs in the Mombasa region was of great concern following the Monday night attack on locals in Bamburi area by the outlawed Wakili Kwanza gang. Police have so far been able to arrest three suspects in connection with this attack that left at least thirteen people seriously injured.

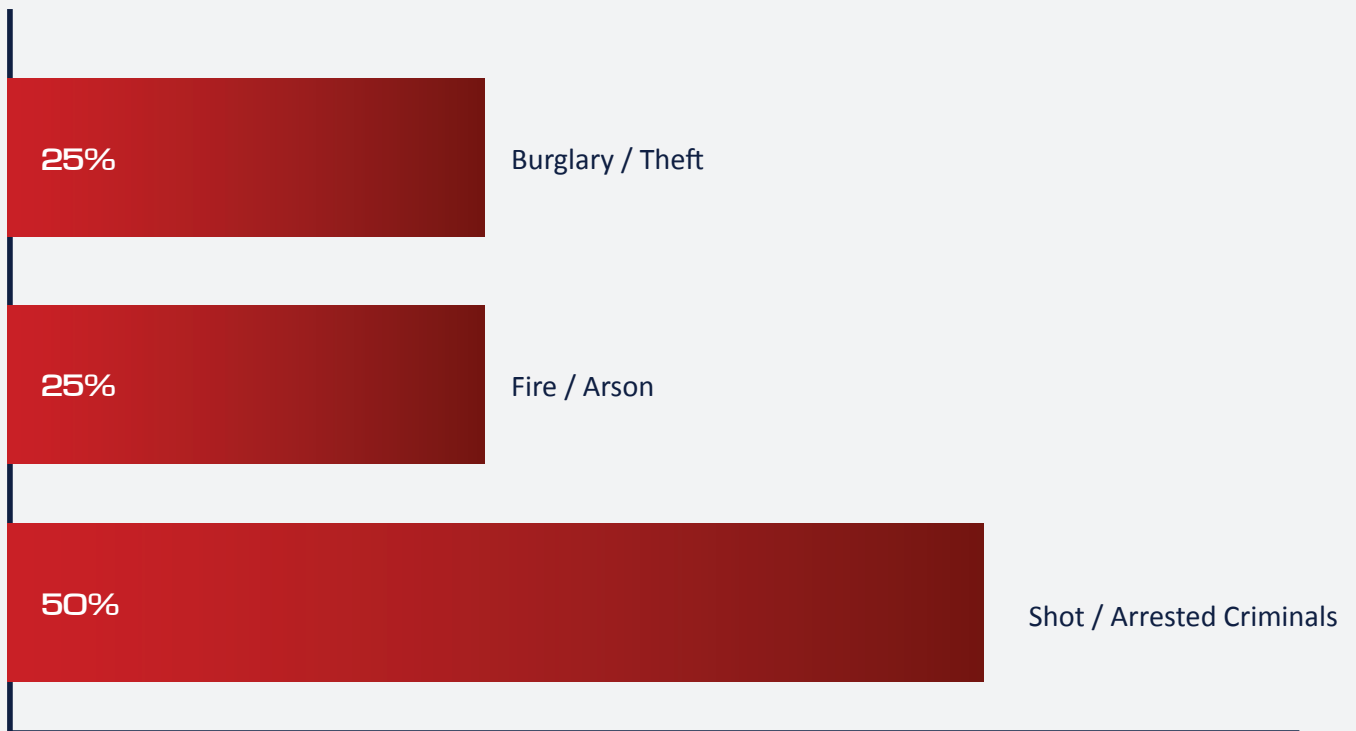

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK NAIROBI

The key crime-related incidents reported in Nairobi included:

- A suspected robber was on Thursday night shot dead while three others escaped following a shootout with detectives pursuing a stolen lorry near Kenya Utalii college, Nairobi.
- A suspected carjacker was on Friday nabbed in Kabete while in possession of a stolen car whose colour and registration number had been changed.
- Two women are accused to have on Saturday drugged and stolen from a businessman in a Nairobi's hotel room.
- One person on Sunday died and property worth millions of shillings destroyed after a fire broke out on a residential flat on Kiambu road near Ridgeways mall.
