BM SECURITY est.1984

OVERVIEW

As a majority of schools continue to reopen after a lengthy holiday session, it is prudent for parents to track the movements of their children reporting to boarding schools.

Similar periods in the past years have been marked with instances of students either getting mugged, drugged or kidnapped thereby failing to safely arrive to their corresponding institutions. It is further advisable for parents and guardians to liaise with the school administrators to confirm students' arrival and raise alarm in case of eventuality.

Aside from the above, officers from the Directorate of Criminal Investigations managed to arrest three suspects of car theft syndicate in Nairobi. Reports indicate that police accused the trio of drugging their unsuspecting victims using psychotropic drugs at nightclubs in Kasarani and Roysambu areas before executing the crime.
