

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

22nd October - 28th October '19

OVERVIEW

In this week under reference, there were raised concerns regarding insecurity in some parts of the Country. Our security sources indicate that Nairobi residents had raised concerns over increased muggings cases along Enterprise Road. They blame the soaring crime on the illegal structures built-up that harbour gangs ready to pounce on pedestrians while walking home at night. .

Similar to the above case scenario, residents of Chepkanga on the outskirts of Eldoret town in Uasin Gishu County staged protests against the upsurge of burglary and robbery cases in their area. For instance, houses and commercial premises within Chepkanga trading centre were on Friday night broken into by unknown people who made away with cash and other valuables.

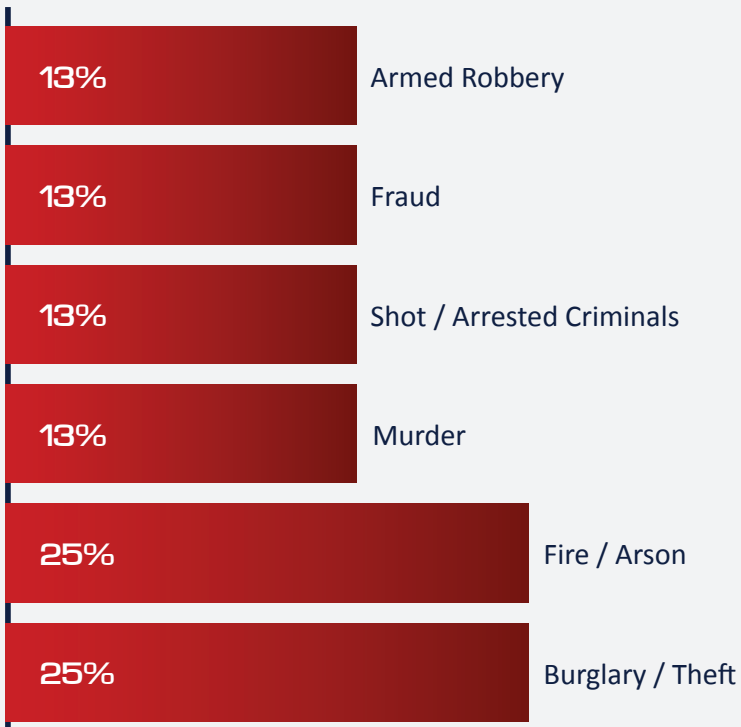

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK NAIROBI

The notable incidents recorded in Nairobi included the following:

- Three men are accused to have on Tuesday stolen electronic and construction materials from a company that installs street lights and guard rails along Outer Ring Road.
- Police on Thursday arrested a University Lecturer after a decomposing body of her son was found wrapped in a blanket in their house in South B.
- A fire incident was on Friday reported at an informal settlement adjacent to Southlands Estate in Langata.
- A police officer was on Saturday robbed of his gun near Nairobi's Globe Cinema.
- Detectives from the Directorate of Criminal Investigations on Saturday busted an electronics theft syndicate after they recovered 262 mobile phones, computers, and other accessories following a raid at two shops along Mfangano and Ronald Ngala Streets.
- Suspected thieves on Monday mugged pedestrians along Enterprise Road, Nairobi.
