

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

10th December - 16th December '19

OVERVIEW

Police across the Country have rolled out different strategies to deal with insecurity that is likely to be high during the festive season. Our security sources in the week under reference indicate that there has been intensified police patrols on a 24 hours basis with key arrests of criminals made in Nairobi and Mombasa Counties.

Other than the above, the public is advised to be extra vigilant, as the festive season is known for notorious criminal activities such as muggings, drunk driving, and the formation of criminal gangs.
