

OVERVIEW

Of particular concern in the week under reference is the plan by the Government to intensify safety and security measures over the next two months in the lead up to the festive season.

While our previous crime report issue reported of a resurgence of criminal gangs in the Coastal region, our security sources indicate that police officers over the weekend ambushed and arrested at least nine suspects of two outlawed machete-wielding groups in Kisauni, Mombasa County.

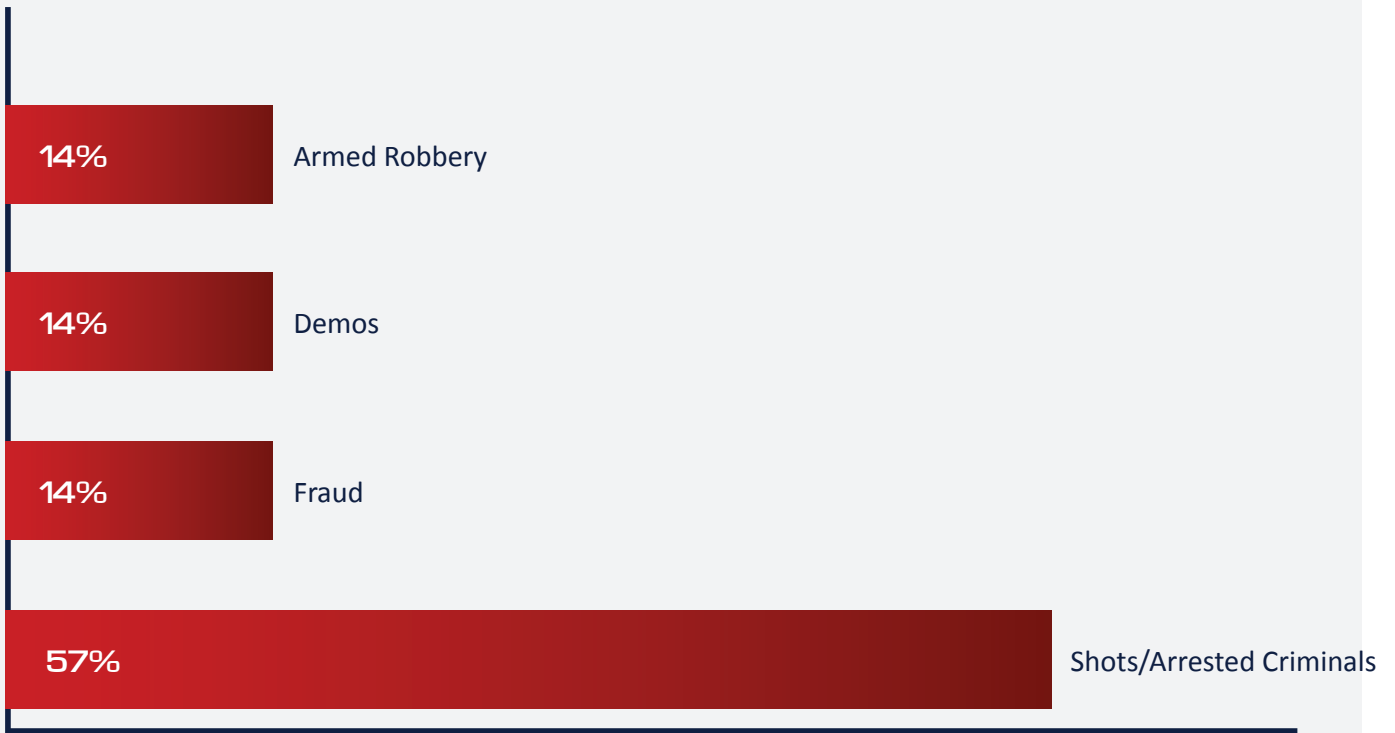

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK NAIROBI

The notable incidents recorded in Nairobi included the following:

- Two young men were on Tuesday night cornered by residents of Nairobi's Makongeni area as they attempted to snatch a handbag while on a motorbike.
- An assortment of gas cylinders believed to have been set for refilling with counterfeit gas were on Friday confiscated at gas refilling plant in Syokimau area along Mombasa Road in Nairobi County.
- Administration Police officers on Friday subdued suspected armed robbers near the Powerstar Supermarket in Kasarani, Nairobi County.
- Two men alleged to be police constables were on Saturday arrested after they attempted to carjack an Uber driver in Eastleigh estate, Nairobi.
- An armed robber was on Saturday gunned down following a shootout with DCI detectives along the Southern Bypass, Nairobi. The man in his twenties was ambushed by detectives who had received an intelligence of a planned robbery on the busy road.
- Three gunmen on Monday night shot and injured two people following a robbery incident at a shop in Nairobi's Fedha Estate.
