

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

31st December '19 - 6th January '20

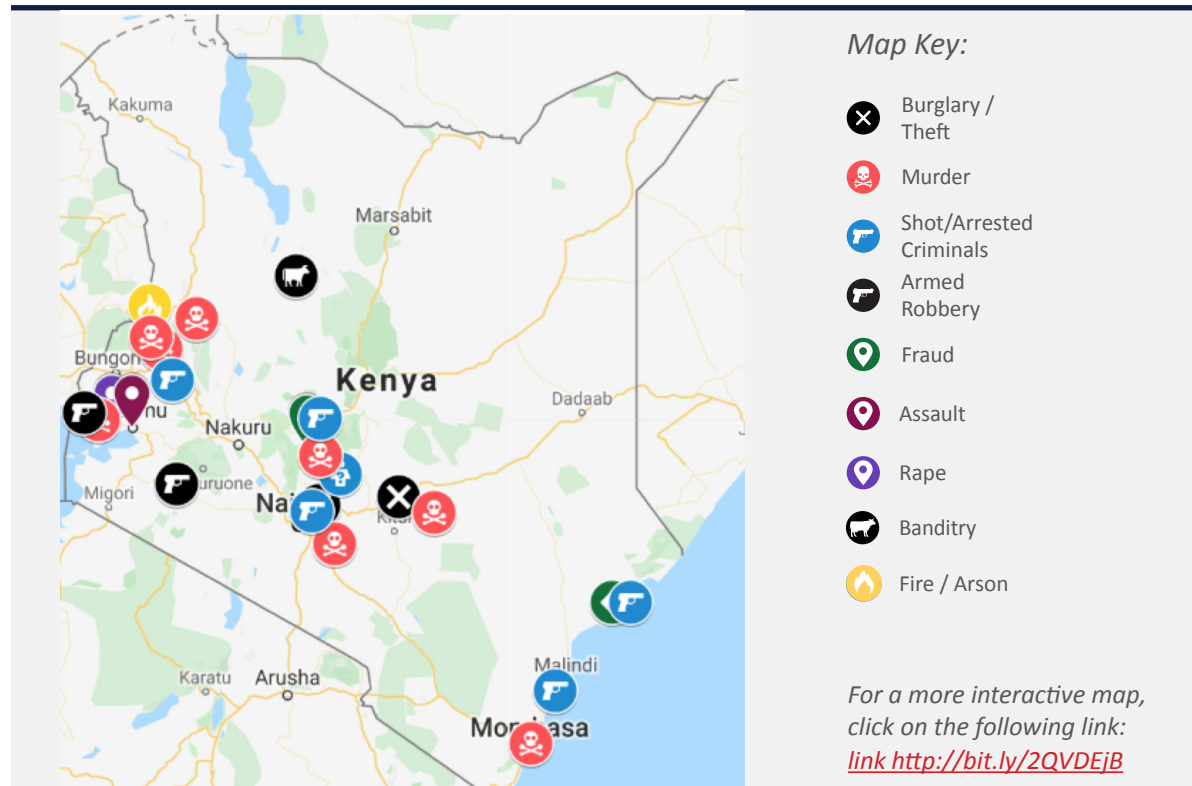

OVERVIEW

AN AERIAL VIEW OF SECURITY INCIDENTS IN KENYA

The beginning week of January 2020 depicted an increasing concern in terror-related incidents reported in Lamu and Wajir Counties. Our security sources take note of two raids at Nyongoro and Manda Naval base in Lamu County where the Kenya Defence Forces managed to save more than 60 passengers and gunned down five assailants at the respective places.

Despite the above growing fears of insecurity, the Kenyan Government continues to reassure her citizens and foreigners of safety in both air and road travel with various security agencies being on high alert to avert any security breach in the Country.

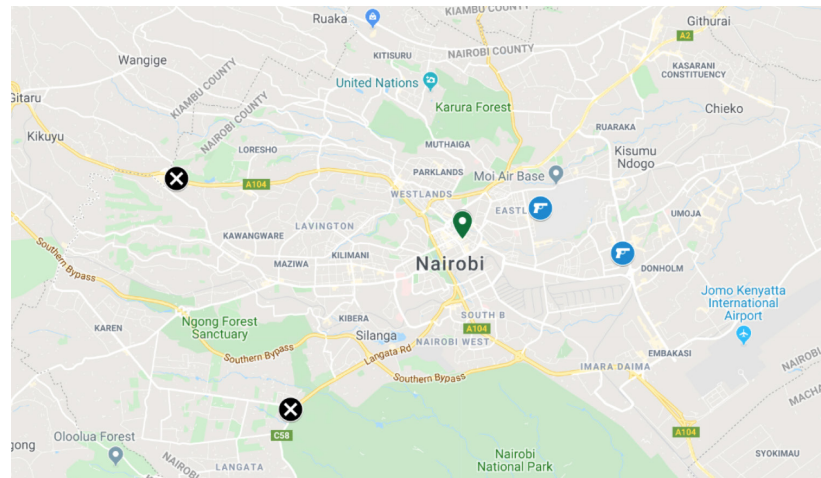

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK NAIROBI

The key crime-related incidents reported in Nairobi included:

- Three fraud suspects were on Friday arrested within Nairobi town after they defrauded a man Ksh. 410,000.00 while pretending to be in a position to help him get recruited as Kenya Defence Officer.
- One suspect was on Saturday arrested and 243 stolen Television Sets recovered following an operation by detectives from DCI at a residential house in Buru Buru Phase 4.
- A man is accused to have on Saturday sneaked into Kabete Police Station in Nairobi and stole a key exhibit from a vehicle parked in the police car yard.
- Security officers on Sunday evening arrested a Somali-Canadian man photographing the Kenya Air Force Moi Air Base in Eastleigh.
- A suspected burglar on Monday afternoon broke into a car parked at the Galleria Mall and made away with valuables including a laptop and other crucial documents.
