

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

25th February - 2nd March 2020

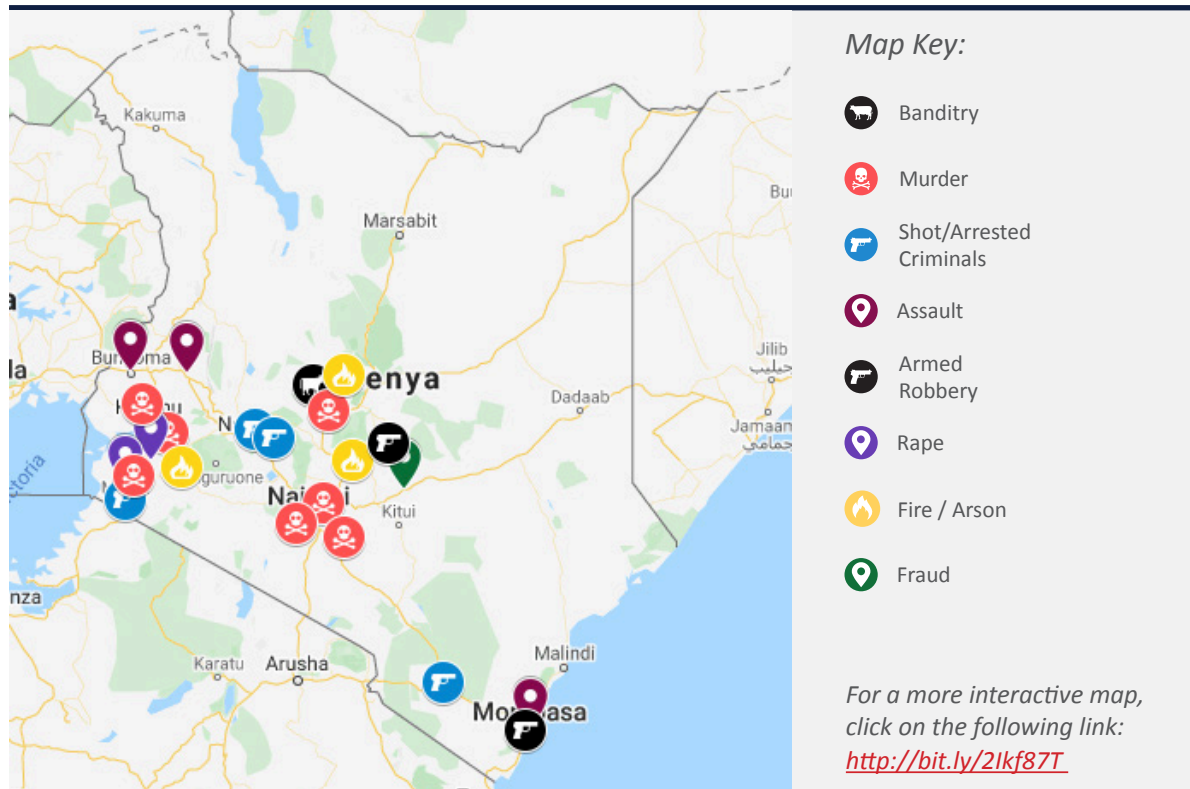

OVERVIEW

AN AERIAL VIEW OF SECURITY INCIDENTS IN KENYA

Our security sources recorded a slight upsurge of crime-related incidents reported across the Country. Incidents of mysterious kidnappings and murders continue to make highlights in the country. In the week under reference, the kidnapping of a Chinese national in Nairobi prompted the Directorate of Criminal Investigations (DCI) to track down and neutralize the perpetrators of the atrocious crime. The number of killings have been on the rise as well with cases reported in different parts of the county; Kakamega, Kisumu and Kiambu just to name a few.

In addition to the above, there`s been a slight increase in fire & arson related incidents that saw the destruction of property and loss of life in Nairobi as well as Northern and Western regions of Kenya

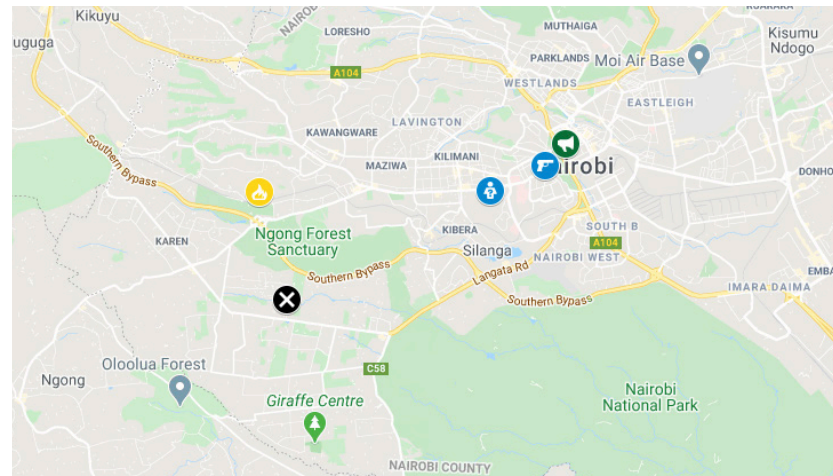

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK NAIROBI

The key crime-related incidents reported in Nairobi included:

- Traders on Tuesday engaged police in running battles outside GPO in the Nairobi City Centre following a protest by Prisons suppliers over non-payment amid tendering scandal.
- DCI detectives and police officers based at Kamukunji on Wednesday arrested the leader of a notorious gang that had been operating within the Central Business District.
- Security agents neutralized four suspects among them an AP officer and rescued a Chinese national whom they had kidnapped on Thursday at the China Centre along Ngong Road, Nairobi County.
- A Toyota Land cruiser vehicle was on Thursday allegedly stolen from a residential house at Hillcrest close in Karen, Nairobi County.
