

WEEKLY CRIME REPORT

3rd March - 9th March 2020

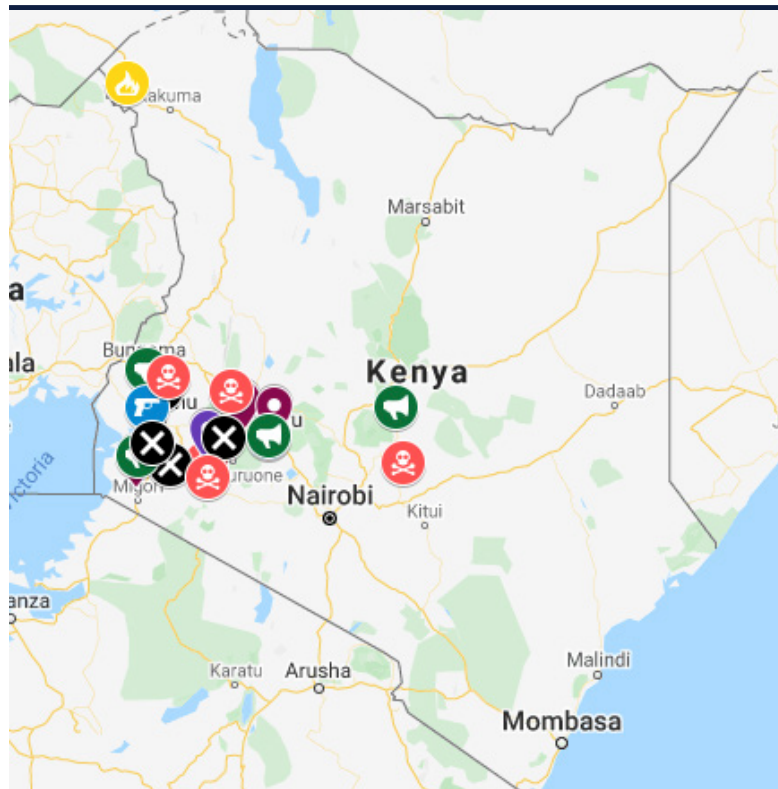

2020

OVERVIEW

AN AERIAL VIEW OF SECURITY INCIDENTS IN KENYA

Our security sources recorded a slight upsurge of crime-related incidents across the Country save for Nairobi county. Our sources indicate that vandalism cases have been on the rise in the beginning of the month of March compared to the other months. Arson incidents continue to cause havoc damaging property and rendering individuals homeless in the country.

Incidents of road signage vandalism and destruction of guardrails prompted police officers acting on a tip off to arrest and charge six criminals on Outer ring road, Nairobi. In addition to the above, there`s been a slight increase in demonstrations and destruction of property by angry students protesting and engaging police in running battles, with cases being reported in Nairobi, Homabay, Nakuru and Meru among others.
