

WEEKLY SECURITY & SAFETY REPORT

29th May - 4th June 2020

OVERVIEW

The Ministry of Health on Thursday confirmed 124 individuals tested positive for coronavirus bringing the total national tally to 2340 against 592 recoveries and 78 deaths. Elgeyo Marakwet became the 36th County to record a case as Nairobi and Mombasa Counties lead in the total number of infections at 1182, and 655 respectively.

As the above number keeps rising and given the bed capacity of our hospitals, the Government plans to roll out a home-based and community-care base that will see over 80% of asymptomatic patients treated from their homes.

SECURITY THREATS

CRIME

A majority are looking forward to the President's address with the dusk-to-dawn curfew and cessation of movement orders ending on 6th June 2020. The crime trends for the past three months have correlated with these two orders as offenders took advantage of the COVID-19 situation to carry out their heinous acts.

The public is hereby advised to be on the lookout for suspicious individuals imposing themselves as Rapid Response Team tracking COVID-19 patients' contacts and ease from displaying their mobile phones while walking.

CIVIL UNREST

At least 15 people have been killed and 31 others injured by police officers since Kenya heightened security measures to curb the spread of coronavirus. The instances of reported police brutality have and will continue to spark protests among members of the public. .
